

BERNE ARRIVES FOR BIG MATCH TOMORROW

William Berne, the great Russian-Slavonian wrestler, arrived direct from the Los Angeles Athletic club last night, where he has been training for his match with Ajax's Masked Marvel, and states he is in the best of condition for his match tomorrow and expects to be returned the winner by Referee King Pierce in the big catch-as-catch-can match at the Airdome Christmas afternoon.

The Masked Marvel, accompanied by his manager, Victor Ajax, and a retinue of trainers, will come over from Goldfield early tomorrow morning, and the final conference between the referee, both wrestlers and the Business Men's club will take place at noon, in order to thoroughly clear up any questions regarding the rules and to avoid any delay at the ringside.

Both Kid Carter and George Papas did their last gymnasium work yesterday afternoon and, with the exception of light road work today, they are now ready for the going to start them on their way in the big 10-round boxing contest.

Carter was so confident last night he would be returned the winner he placed $100 of his own money in the hands of John Manion of the Cobweb to bet on himself.

As practically all of the 300 ring-side seats have been sold, the Business Men's club has arranged to place fifty reserved special chairs in the Airdome to take care of the out-of-town visitors and as many of the local fans as possible who failed to make their reservations earlier.

Charles S. Moore and his Louvre entertainers will be on hand at 2 p. m. sharp to entertain the big crowd from the Airdome stage, while the Tonopah Military band will play a concert on the streets, commencing at 1 p. m. sharp, and also at the Airdome during the afternoon.

Don't forget the doors open at 1 p. m. for the sale of general admission tickets and first come first served will be the motto. The first event, which will be the first fall in the big wrestling match, will be staged at 2:30 p. m. sharp and the boxing contest will follow immediately thereafter, and during the intermission between the first and second falls in the wrestling, immediately after the fight the second and, if necessary, the third fall in the wrestling bout will take place.

As Billy Jordan, the famous announcer, said: "Let 'er go!"

JUDGE SCORES LEGAL METHODS OF S. F. ATTY.

Saturday afternoon Judge Averill granted Julius Johnson a writ of habeas corpus and he was discharged from custody. Johnson was charged with embezzlement in connection with the failure to meet installments on two auto trucks purchased from a San Francisco firm. Judge Averill in granting the application severely criticized the "badly bungled proceedings" of the California authorities.

After reviewing the case, the judge's decision concludes: "No law was called to my attention making it a felony to remove auto trucks from the state of California or out of San Francisco county. Fraud, in this instance, would describe any act of Johnson inconsistent with his ownership of the trucks, as a sale of them, an attempt to sell them, the turning them over to the custody of another in such a way as to divest him of the control of them; in other words, any attempt to beat the selling company out of its retained title in them. Nothing of that kind appears in the whole record, which shows that Johnson breached his contract by failing to pay the installments for four months and that he removed the trucks from California, except the bare reference to the possession of the trucks by Mr. Crumley."

Now, it may be that Julius Johnson has committed a criminal act, and if so he should be returned to California for trial. It is not the attitude of this court that any criminal should escape the punishment a criminal should receive; but in as badly a bungled proceeding as this has been on the part of the California authorities who essayed to conduct it, the accused should be allowed the benefit of the doubt.

If San Francisco county wants Mr. Johnson, it can probably get him by proceeding properly, by charging him with some crime and sealing it by its real name, and by making it plain in ordinary and concise language that he is guilty of something more than a breach of contract.

The writ is granted, and Julius Johnson is hereby ordered discharged from the custody of the sheriff of Nye county.

AMUSEMENTS

KATHLYN WILLIAMS AT THE BUTLER.

The fact that Kathlyn Williams, the noted Morasco star, and Wallace Reid, the popular young Lasky star, will be seen together this evening at the Butler in the Morasco production, "Big Timber," a picturization of Bertrand Sinclair's famous story, is bound to be one of unusual importance. Kathlyn Williams has for some time been one of the most popular actresses on the screen, and is placed among the most emotional artists of the country. Wallace Reid, the vigorous and handsome Lasky star, is now the most popular among the young actors in the photodrama, and in each production adds many more admirers to his thousands.

"Big Timber" is a story of the California lumber camps and all of the scenes were taken high up in the Sierras, in the lumber camp district. How big trees are felled and cut and handled is graphically shown during the action of the story. One of the most unusual scenes is a log chute down the side of the mountain. The big logs are seen skidding down to plunge into the waters of the river, throwing a spray high in the air. By constant watchfulness the director was finally able to film a natural forest fire raging in the big timber, and so great was its headway that the forest rangers ordered the members of the company to aid them in fighting the flames. The story has to do with the loveless marriage of a society girl and Jack Fyfe, owner of the big timber.

Tomorrow, Christmas day, Mary Pickford, in "The Little American," and Roscoe (Fatty) Arbuckle, in "The Rough House," his best comedy. There will be a free matinee for the children in the afternoon, and a program that cannot be beaten, either for children or the grown-ups.

The Butler wishes you all a Merry Christmas.

REMOVAL

On December 31 I will discontinue my office in Tonopah and shortly after the New Year I will open my brokerage office at 342 Russ Bldg., San Francisco, Cal., where I will be pleased to greet all my old friends and clients. As I shall be on the floor of the San Francisco Exchange daily, all mail and telegraphic orders will receive my personal attention, and the same prompt and efficient service will prevail in the execution of orders intrusted to me.

Season's greetings to one and all.

MORE HELPERS NEEDED FOR RED CROSS WORK

At this season of giving, it is not inopportune to say what the women who have labored in the surgical dressings rooms have given their Red Cross nurses and physicians to help them in their wonderful work. Since November 1 there has been made 2676 gauze strips, compresses, rolls and sponges. Add to this 530 muslin bandages, all of which required hemming, and you have the result of the month and a half's work. Such an urgent appeal has come for this indispensable part of the Red Cross work that this is published to help secure more women for this work.

Dr. De Chene is still giving her valuable skill and time to superintending, and those recently graduated are there to help any newcomer. The making of these is simply itself, but their use is invaluable. The young girls' Saturday class has done splendid work, and it is hoped more will attend these classes.

Everything is furnished by the Red Cross and all that is asked of you is a little of your time, and the result is that many a man who might otherwise return legless or armless will be able to go about as one of God's creatures should.
